KELP Compiling and Installation - Eclipse

Table of Contents

Chapter 1. Instructions

Generate Enhydra project with Kelp Application Wizard in Eclipse

- 1. Open "File->New->Project..."

- 2. Select "Enhydra" in left, and "Enhydra Project" in right frame. Click "Next".

- 3. Enter project name. Click "Next".

- 4. Click "Finish".

- 5. Choose "Component type" and click "Next".

- 6. Click "Next". (Fields "Project directory name" and "Project root" are entered in previous steps and should not be changed)

- 7. Click "Next".

- 8. Click "Finish".

Chapter 2. Build and run Enhydra application with Kelp for Eclipse

If "Enhydra Tools" is not visible in main menu, use "Window->Customize Perspective...", expand "Other" and check "Enhydra Tools".

Note: Each of the following steps requires the current project to be selected.

- 1.Use the "Enydra Tools->XML Compiler" to compile your html pages into DOM classes.

- 2.Deploy the application using "Enhydra Tools->Deployer".

- 3.Make run configuration for project with "Run->Run...", double click on "Enhydra Application" and click "Run".

- 4.From your browser enter: http://localhost:8002.